 CLEVELAND, Sept. 26.—Clark Griffith's Highlanders are now in second place in the race for the American League pennant. They took this turn here to-day when they dropped both games of a double header to Lajoie's hard hitting Napoleons. It was a bitter pill for Griffith and his players to swallow and their only consolation is the hope that the Clevelanders will administer the same dose to the Giants when the latter arrive here.

First inning.
 Dougherty lifted a fly to Rossman. Donahue handled Keeler's punt. Turner's throw was too fast for Eberfeld. NO RUNS.

Second inning.
 A called third strike sent Williams to the bench. Anderson popped to Bradley. Conroy clouted a bingle to left and stole second. Bradley threw out Gansel. NO RUNS.

Third inning.
 McGuire fanned. Turner whipped Lush. Conroy hit hard for Dougherty's short fly. Conroy ran hard for Dougherty's short fly. Conroy ran hard for Dougherty's short fly. NO RUNS.

Fourth inning.
 Keeler singled to right. Eberfeld popped to Stovall. Williams rapped a safe one down the left field line. Anderson fled to Lush to Lajoie. NO RUNS.

Fifth inning.
 Lush's short fly fell in Eberfeld's hands. Bradley fanned. Flick popped to Eberfeld. NO RUNS.

Sixth inning.
 Conroy lined to Lush a pretty running catch. Gansel bunted safe. Lush ran in for McGuire's fly. Flick captured Powell's drive in the corner after a hard run. NO RUNS.

Seventh inning.
 Anderson singled to center. Conroy fled to Flick. Anderson stole. Gansel doubled to centerfield fence, scoring Anderson. Donahue threw out McGuire after stopping the ball with his back. A wild pitch scored Gansel. Powell singled. Dougherty forced Powell. Lajoie doubled to right despite Keeler's great try. Turner scratched singled. Buelow's smash to Eberfeld scored Stovall. The throw to the plate being too late. Donahue's run. Turner, Powell to Conroy. Gansel dropped Eberfeld's throw and Donahue was safe, filling the bases. Lush walked. Conroy's run. Rossman with a run. Bradley singled, scoring Lush. Powell hit Flick on the shoulder, forcing Lush. Rossman's run. Lajoie singled to Conroy. Stovall forced Eberfeld to Williams. FOUR RUNS.

(Special to The Evening World.)
 POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The Giants took both games of the double-header from the Pirates to-day. In the second session, a seven-inning affair, McGinnity held Pittsburgh down to two hits. Flaherty was only touched for two also, but the better base running of McGraw's champions sent a man home.

First inning.
 Gilbert was out. Warner to Bowerman. Beaumont out on a roller. Dahlen to Bowerman. Ritchey out. McGinnity to Bowerman. NO RUNS.

Second inning.
 Donlin got a life on W. Gilbert's smash of his fly. Browne fled to W. Gilbert. Flaherty put Bowerman out also. McGinnity died. Ritchey to Bransfield. NO RUNS.

Third inning.
 Leach fled to Browne. McCormack was tossed out. McGinnity to Bowerman. Bowerman touched out Bransfield at first on a bad throw by Bad Bill. NO RUNS.

Fourth inning.
 Bad Bill Dahlen struck out. Devlin struck out. Gilbert singled. Warner forced Gilbert at second. Krueger to Ritchey. NO RUNS.

Fifth inning.
 Krueger was fooled on three. Ditto for Phelps. He fanned the side. Flaherty being the victim. NO RUNS. McGinnity fled to Beaumont. Donlin singled to left. Browne singled and McGinnity scored. Bowerman fumbled. Browne going to third. Bowerman hit to Bransfield, who threw Browne out at the plate. Merits was thrown out. Ritchey to Bransfield. ONE RUN.

Sixth inning.
 W. Gilbert singled. Beaumont forced Gilbert out at second. Dahlen to Gilbert. Ritchey did the same thing. Beaumont, Devlin to Gilbert. Ritchey was nipped stealing second. Warner to Dahlen. NO RUNS.

Seventh inning.
 Dahlen went out to Bransfield, unassisted. Krueger to first stopped Devlin. Same thing for Gilbert. NO RUNS.

HURT BY FALL OF SCAFFOLD

Fourteenth street shoppers were startled late this afternoon by the crash of falling scaffolding from a building in course of struction at No. 13 to 17 West Thirteenth street. Policeman Plagge saw the scaffolding fall from the second floor with a half-dozen men on and sent in a double ambulance call. There was great excitement among the shopping crowds. The ambulance surgeon found four injured metal workmen and took them to New York and St. Vincent's Hospitals.

They were Gils Bang, of No. 366 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street; Barney Pauf, No. 928 Traphagen street, Hoboken; Arthur Gergen, No. 206 East One Hundred and Fourth street, and John Oehlein, No. 511 East Eighty-fifth street. All were bruised and out but none seriously injured.
